Sweet

Details of Distinction

Black and white linens with ivory and white flowers were punctuated with aqua accents such as lanterns, dresses and sweet candy favors to add a dash of fancifulness to this elegant event.

THE INTRODUCTION As many great relationships begin, a friend introduced Jessica and Alex to one another. They were also joined by friends when Alex proposed to Jessica in a secluded part of the beach near a cave. Although an important, life-altering event, Alex took it upon himself to have a bit of fun with Jessica. The ring given to Jessica was in a style that Jessica had mentioned she did not care for entirely. Jessica was more than happy to accept it because of her deep love for Alex. As her best friend approached he started over and this time presented her with the most stunning ring she had ever seen!
